

NEGRO CONFESSES MURDER OF NURSE AT NAVY ACADEMY

Deserter Admits Killing Woman With Motive of Robbery.

ANNAPOLIS, Jan. 19.—Harry J. Brown, negro navy deserter, confessed today that he murdered Miss Harriet M. Kavanaugh, Naval Academy Hospital nurse, whose battered body was discovered in the Academy grounds late Friday night. Robbery was the sole motive, he said, and he had attempted no other crime.

The confession followed an all-night grilling. Brown was arrested in Baltimore Sunday night on a technical charge of desertion. He had been absent from the Academy, where he had been employed as a mess attendant, since December 22. He had all but convinced the authorities that he had not been in Annapolis on the night of the murder. But yesterday his alibi was broken down, and the investigators became convinced he was guilty.

Negro Breaks Down.
Questioned throughout the night and all morning, the negro broke down at 1 o'clock this afternoon and told the complete story. Afterwards, when the confession had been put in writing, he signed it in the presence of his counsel.

Brown's statement was that he had followed Miss Kavanaugh through the northern, or Oklahoma, gate of the Academy, and got ahead of her by cutting across the parade grounds. On the way, he stated, he picked up a piece of pipe from under the grandstand, and crossed the bridge ahead of the nurse.

Getting behind a big tree, he waited for her to approach and then struck her on the head. Brown said he had waited a second time, as he feared she had recognized him.

Grabs Handbag.
Brown said he took the nurse's handbag and opened it as he ran, finding a purse and a silver pencil. Crossing the Academy Bridge, he started striking the seawall, he escaped by getting around the end of the Academy wall, and from that point to the County Bridge.

On his way, Brown said, he became panic-stricken and threw the purse and pencil away, together with the $8 he had taken from the nurse. He stayed in Annapolis all Saturday, and left for Baltimore early Sunday morning.

Brown is 19 years old, about five feet and nine inches in height, and slender in build. He is from Texas. He had a very bad temper, he testified. He will probably be tried in the United States District Court of Baltimore.

WISCONSIN WOMAN IN BERLIN SWINDLE

BERLIN, Jan. 19.—Mrs. Virginia Moll, supposed to be an American, who was arrested here in a "food relief" swindle Saturday, says she will not appeal to the American commission for diplomatic assistance, having discarded American citizenship by marrying a German a decade ago. She was born, according to her account, as Virginia Fairfax Brown, at Lodi, Wis., forty-two years ago. Her husband died last summer and left an income too small to support herself and her schoolboy son.

"She and her Berlin partner, both of whom are behind the bars here, will probably spend a couple of years with us," said a police official investigating the case, who, however, believes have the Capt. Collins tool in the hands of more important financial interests.

DOCTORS USE CALOTABS FOR COLDS AND FLU

Influenza and Grippe, Like Ordinary Colds, Require Calotabs, the Purified and Refined Calomet Tablets That Are Nauseless, Safe and Sure.

Doctors are warning the public that simple colds and mild cases of influenza often lead to pneumonia and other serious complications. They say every cold should receive immediate attention and that the first step in the treatment is to make sure that the liver is active. For this purpose Calotabs, the perfected, nausealess calomet tablets, are the surest, best and most agreeable laxative.

One Calotab at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all, no salts, no nausea, and no upsetting of the digestion and appetite. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified and refreshed and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please—no danger.

For your protection, Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. All druggists recommend and guarantee Calotabs and are authorized to refund the price if you are not delighted with them.
